Nice work on this Charlie!. Is there an option to screen it in the Learning Studio for folks without computer access?

Peace,
Natalie

Subject: November Zoom Program with Freedom Archives and Certain Days Collective

Hi all,

I wanted to share this Zoom program I have coming up next month, held on an important date for Assata Shakur:

Panel: A Generation of Political Prisoner Support and Archiving Resistance | San Francisco Public Library

This program has a lot of interweaving cultural amplifier/topic tag designations, so I believe it may resonate with audiences from our different (and overlapping) corners of SFPL. It'll be a great discussion about histories of political imprisonment and the writing and art that's grown from them.

Please feel free to add it to newsletters, areas where patrons can register for the Zoom with their phone cameras if they wish, or share directly with folks you think would be interested, including staff I may have missed here. I'm happy to send half sheets and flyers your way, too.

Thanks for checking it out.

Sincerely,
Charlie
